

Digital-born Media Carnival Application Form

Welcome to Digital-born Media Carnival application form! If you have stumbled up here and need more info about the event, please visit www.shareconference.net/carnival. Application phase is open until 1st of June 2017. There is around 20 short questions in several sections, but You shouldn't need more than few minutes to fill out the form. Your submitted information will be used for selection process and evaluation requirements only. If You prefer filling out this form offline and submitting it through email, please request it on carnival@sharedefense.org.

Email address

First name

Last name

Where are you coming from?

Gender

Male

Female

Other

How old are you?

18 - 24

25 - 30

30 - 40

40+

Profession

Organization or community

Position

Tell us about what you do in your organization or field of work

Professional background

Years of experience and past achievements

Education

Indicate your highest level of education and institution you graduated from

Twitter (optional)

@username

Other (optional)

Link to profile on any other social media

Topics you are interested in:

online media business models

data journalism and innovation in reporting and media production regulatory framework & ethics of online media

digital security

manipulation & fake news

Are you applying to be a speaker or participate in program in any other way? If yes, explain below.

Will it be a workshop or a lecture? What would you like to present? What are the key points and what would you like to achieve?

We can cover one or more organizational costs. Which one would you prefer?

Program access only

Program access & Trip costs

Program access & Accommodation

All

If selected all, would you be still interested if we gave you partial scholarship?

Yes

No

Are you fluent in English?

Yes

No

Share with us which historical or fictional character are you

How did you find out about the Carnival?

SHARE Website

Mailing list

Friend and/or colleague

Social media

Other

Anything else you'd like us to know?